

The Value of Aging & Long-term Care Policies

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE • CHAIRE AGING UP!

Monday March 31st, 2025 > Tuesday April 1st, 2025
Programme

agingup.u-paris.fr

Monday March 31st, 2025

Université Paris Cité - Site Odéon - Grand amphithéâtre
12 rue de l'École de Médecine, Paris 6^e

Tuesday April 1st, 2025

Université Paris Cité - Site Odéon - Grand amphithéâtre
12 rue de l'École de Médecine, Paris 6^e

09:00 | WELCOME COFFEE

09:15 | OPENING OF THE CONFERENCE

by Édouard KAMINSKI | President of the Université Paris Cité

09:30 | Joan COSTA-I-FONT

Professor of Health Economics, London School of Economics and Political Science

The Careless Pill?

10:10 | Anupam B. JENA

Professor of Health Care Policy, Harvard University

Natural Experiments in Health Care in the Aging Population

10:50 | COFFEE BREAK

11:10 | Courtney VAN HOUTVEN | Professor of Population Health Sciences, Duke University

The value of informal caregiver support in US Veterans Affairs Health Care System

11:50 | Éric BONSANG | Professor of Economics, Université Paris Dauphine-PSL

Demise of the Caregiving Daughter? Gender Employment Gaps and the use of formal and informal care in Europe

12:30 | LUNCH BREAK | Buffet served in the Atrium

14:00 | KEYNOTE LECTURE

David GRABOWSKI | Professor of Health Care Policy, Harvard University

Increasing the Value of Long-Term Care: Lessons from the US Experience

15:00 | COFFEE BREAK

15:20 | ROUNDTABLE 1

How can long-term policies deliver value? A review of international experiences and ways forward

Francesca COLOMBO | Head of the Health Division, OECD

David KNAPP | Senior Economist, University of Southern California

Patrick JEURISSEN | Professor of Health Care Systems, Radboud University

Ludovico CARRINO | Senior Lecturer of Public Economics, University of Trieste

MODERATION : Thomas RAPP

Professor of Economics, LIRAES and Chaire Aging UPI, Université Paris Cité

END OF DAY 1: 16h50

09:00 | WELCOME COFFEE

First results of the Aging UP! Global survey on older people's and caregivers' preferences for long-term care

MODERATION : Joan COSTA-I-FONT

Professor of Economics, London School of Economics and Political Science

09:15 | Anaïs CHENEAU

Research Fellow in Health Economics, LIRAES and Chaire Aging UPI, Université Paris Cité

Care at home or in an institution? A mixed method approach to understanding elderly preferences in France

09:45 | Jonathan SICSIC

Associate Professor in Economics, LIRAES and Chaire Aging UPI, Université Paris Cité

Yes, I (will) care. Comparing actual and future caregivers' preferences for care arrangements and location in France

10:15 | Aimée KINGSADA

Research Fellow in Health Economics, LIRAES and Chaire Aging UPI, Université Paris Cité

Investigating French citizens' preferences for autonomy loss prevention programs over the life cycle

10:45 | COFFEE BREAK

11:00 | ROUNDTABLE 2

Developing patient-centered long-term care policies

Axel MÜLHBACHER | Professor Health Economics and Health Care Management, Neubrandenburg University

Joanna COAST | Professor in the Economics of Health & Care, University of Bristol

Magdalena WALBAUM | Research Fellow in Health and Social Care, London School of Economics and Political Science

Mauricio AVENDANO | Associate Professor, Unisanté, University of Lausanne

MODERATION : Jonathan SICSIC

Associate Professor in Economics, Chaire Aging UPI, Université Paris Cité

END OF DAY 2: 12h30

The aim of this conference is to:

- ▶ Explore if current long-term care policies and innovations (technical and organizational) meet the needs of older people and their informal caregivers
- ▶ Better understand the preferences and expectations of older people and their informal caregivers regarding long-term care services and support provided in OECD countries, and identify the public policies likely to bring the most significant value to them

Free admission
Click here for

REGISTRATION

Contact: agingup.sh@u-paris.fr

This event is sponsored by the Chaire Aging UP! Research program, which is funded by Mécénat santé des Mutuelles Axa, la Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations and France 2030.

FONDATION
Université Paris Cité

LIRAES
Economie - Gestion et Santé

Chaire Aging UP!