

Call for paper: Long-term Care Conference SHARE – BB-Future

The 14th of March, 2025, University of Paris-Dauphine, Paris, France

Aim: We invite submissions of abstracts for research on the economics of ageing, welcoming contributions in applied microeconomics, macroeconomics, and economic theory. Topics may include, but are not limited to, financing mechanisms, labor market implications, caregiving dynamics, and policy evaluation. Interdisciplinary approaches and empirical studies using innovative methodologies are particularly encouraged.

Submission and selection of papers: Selection will be made by the scientific committee, on the basis of an extended abstract written in English. Extended abstract should include literature, data, method, results, and should not be any longer than 1,000 words (Bibliography, Tables and Figures excluded). Only unpublished papers at the time of the submission will be accepted.

Application: Fulfill the form <https://forms.office.com/e/QJiH5m00UM> and send by email the extended abstract with as a subject “LTC-Conf-Application” at elsa.perdrix@dauphine.psl.eu

Important date: Submission until 29th of January 2025 .

Notification of selection the 5th of February 2025

Registration and fees : Registration mandatory here (<https://forms.office.com/e/iRz0WQLpQ4>). No fees for the conference. Accommodation and travel cost are not covered by the organization of the event.

Scientific committee: Axel Börsch-Supan (Munich Research Institute for the Economics of Aging and SHARE Analysis, Munich), Matthias Kredler (University of Carlos III, Madrid), Daniel Barczyk (McGill University, Monreal), Florence Jusot (University of Paris-Dauphine), Elsa Perdrix (University of Paris-Dauphine), Svend Erik Hougaard Jensen (Bruegel, Brussels and Copenhagen Business School, Copenhagen)

Organisation: Elsa Perdrix, Florence Jusot, Pierre Depardieu